Requesting Health Records

If you are asking to look at your records with the CoverKids, these are things that you need to know.

- You may ask to look at or get information about yourself that is in our records.
- We cannot give you access to psychotherapy notes.
- We may tell you that you cannot see certain information. If we get information from someone who is not a health care provider, we must turn you down. We must do this if the law makes us keep it private. We cannot give you access to fraud or abuse compliance records.

I am asking for access to my information for this time period:

_____ to _____

Your Right to See and Get Copies of your Records:

- You have a right to ask to look at or get information about yourself that is in our records.
- You have a right to have an answer to your request within 30 days. If the information is not in our office, you will get an answer within 60 days. We will tell you if there is a delay in getting your information. The delay cannot be more than 30 days. You will get an answer in writing either way.
- If you have asked for the same information within the past year, a fee may be charged.
- If professionals involved in your care believe that getting this information could be harmful to you or others, your request may be denied.
- The reviewer must decide whether to approve or deny your request. He must do this within a reasonable time. You will get an answer in writing. The answer will include the reason for the decision.

You have a right to file a privacy complaint.
