Background

The Deficit Reduction Act is a piece of legislation passed by Congress that included provisions impacting Federal Health Care Programs. This includes any plan that provides health benefits that are funded by the U.S. Government or any state health care program defined under section 42 U.S.C. 1320a-7(h).

- › BlueCare Tennessee falls under the definition of a state health care program.
- › This law took effect on Jan. 1, 2007.
- › As a BlueCare Tennessee provider or provider/vendor subcontractor, this information impacts you and your staff.

The False Claims Act

The False Claims Act

The False Claims Act covers liability for certain acts (Title 31 U.S.C., Section 3729). It applies to any person who:

- › A: Knowingly presents, or causes to be presented, to an officer, employee or agent of the U.S. Government or member of the Armed Forces of the United States a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval;
- › B: Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or approved by the Government;
- › C: Conspires to defraud the Government by getting a false or fraudulent claim allowed or paid;
- › D: Has possession, custody, or control of property or money used (or to be used) by the government and knowingly delivers (or causes to be delivered) less than all of that money or property;

The False Claims Act covers liability for certain acts (Title 31 U.S.C., Section 3729). It applies to any person who:

- › E: Is authorized to make or deliver a document certifying receipt of property used, or to be used, by the Government and, intending to defraud the Government, makes or delivers the receipt without completely knowing that the information on the receipt is true;
- › F: Knowingly buys, or receives as a pledge of an obligation or debt, public property from an officer or employee of the Government, or a member of the Armed Forces, who lawfully may not sell or pledge property; or
- › G: Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the Government.

Penalties for False Claims Under the False Claims Act

Civil penalty of no less than $14,308 and no more than $28,619 PLUS three times the amount of damages the Government sustains because of the act of the person

Exceptions

The court may assess no less than two times the amount of damages the Government sustains because of a person's actions if the court finds:

- › The person committing the violation furnished officials of the United States responsible for investigating false claims violations with all information known to such person about the violation within 30 days after the date on which the person (the defendant) first obtained the information;
- › The person fully cooperated with any Government investigation of the violation; and
- › At the time the person furnished the United States with the information about the violation, no criminal prosecution, civil action, or administrative action had commenced under Title 31 of the United States Code with respect to the violation, and the person did not have actual knowledge of the existence of an investigation into the violation.

The Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act

The Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act

The Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act allows civil and/or administrative actions to be brought against any person who:

- › A: Knowingly presents, or causes to be presented, to the State a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval under the Medicaid program;
- › B: Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or approved by the State under the Medicaid program;
- › C: Conspires to defraud the State by getting a claim allowed or paid under the Medicaid program knowing the claim is false or fraudulent; or
- › D: Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the State relative to the Medicaid program.

Penalties for False Claims Under the Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act

- › Civil penalty of no less than $5,000 and no more than $25,000 for each claim that violates the Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act, or
- › Administrative action of no less than $1,000 and no more than $5,000, for each claim that violates the Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act

Additionally, the person must pay damages of three times the amount of damages the State sustains because of their actions (damages are limited to $10,000 in administrative proceedings and unlimited court proceedings).

Review T.C.A. § 71-5-182 for more information.

Exceptions

The court may assess two times the amount of damages that the State sustains because of a person's actions if the court finds that:

- › The person committing the violation furnished officials of the State responsible for investigating false claims violations with all information known to such person about the violation within 30 days after the date on which the person (the defendant) first obtained the information;
- › The person fully cooperated with any State investigation of the violation; and
- › At the time the person furnished the State with the information about the violation, no criminal prosecution, civil action, or administrative action had commenced under the Tennessee Medicaid False Claims Act with respect to the violation, and the person did not have actual knowledge of the existence of an investigation into the violation.

Fraud, Waste and Abuse Reporting Requirements

Reporting Suspected Fraud and Abuse

Providers, managed care organizations and others, including vendor sub-contractors, who have knowledge of fraud or abuse must report it.

- › If there's knowledge of TennCare recipient, enrollee or applicant fraud, call the Tennessee Office of the Inspector General immediately at 1-800-433-3982 or report it online at tn.gov/finance/fa-oig/fa-oig-report-fraud.html.
- › When there's knowledge of provider fraud, please call 1-800-433-5454 to report it immediately to the Medicaid Fraud Control Division.

We've included additional information about reporting suspected fraud, waste and abuse later in this presentation.

Please note: The Tennessee Inspector General may assess a civil penalty of up to $10,000 for each finding in which a person willfully fails to report fraud.

Protections Under the False Claims Act

Whistleblower Provisions

Whistleblower Provisions

- › Individuals with original information regarding fraud involving government health care programs may file a lawsuit.
- › Whistleblower — An employee who discloses suspected fraud or abuse by their employer to a government or law enforcement agency

Successful Whistleblower Lawsuit

- › Must meet specific legal requirements
- › Possibly awarded 15-30% of total recovered
- › Employee protected from retaliation

Whistleblower Protection

The False Claims Act provides whistleblower protection from retaliation.

- › An employee must reasonably believe they're reporting a violation of the law.
- › An employer cannot discharge, demote, suspend, harass or in any manner discriminate against the employee for whistleblowing.
- › If retaliation occurs, the employee may be entitled to reinstatement with the same seniority status had the retaliation not occurred, litigation costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and two times their back pay plus interest.
